

Buncombe County Schools
Academically/Intellectually Gifted Programs
Teacher Nomination for Gifted Services for 5-12

Student _____ Grade _____
School _____ School Year _____
Date of Birth _____ Student Number _____
Homeroom Teacher _____ Nominated By _____ Parent/ Guardian Name _____ Phone Number _____

List the ways you have differentiated the curriculum to meet this student's needs:

Most Recent Grades: Language Arts _____ Math _____

Most Recent End of Grade (EOG) Test: Grade _____ Math: Achievement Level _____ Percentile _____
Reading: Achievement Level _____ Percentile _____

Additional Information for Consideration (i.e. other program placements, services received, newly transferred student, or special talents).

Academically/Intellectually Gifted Programs
Teacher Nomination for Gifted Services for Grades 5-12

Language Arts/Reading Checklist	Rarely/ Never	Sometimes	Often	Always	Not Observed
Has extensive vocabulary; interested in words, definitions, derivations
Organizes ideas and sequences well in preparation for speaking and writing
Has a good sense of humor; understands satire, puns, etc.
Is original and creative; comes up with unique ideas in writing and speaking
Has well-developed written communication skills
Participates effectively in group interactions
Displays maturity of judgment and reasoning beyond grade level
Reads complex text fluently
Constructs viable arguments and critiques the reasoning of others

Mathematics	Rarely/ Never	Sometimes	Often	Always	Not Observed
Demonstrates well-developed mathematical/geometrical concepts
Generalizes mathematical relationships; relates concepts in various application
Has well-developed problem-solving skills
Demonstrates creativity in math
Visualizes spatially, can create visual images of a problem
Participates and learns from group interaction
Constructs viable arguments and critiques the reasoning of others

Learning Characteristics	Rarely/ Never	Sometimes	Often	Always	Not Observed
Has a good memory and can recall information easily
Tries to discover the how and why of things; asks a variety of questions about many things
Is curious about many things
Is able to generate a number of solutions to problems; often offers clever ideas
Carries responsibility well; can be counted on to do what is required
Is able to transfer learning from one situation to another
Displays perseverance

Signature(s) of teacher(s) completing this form: _____

For AIG Specialist Use Only:
Date Received:	AIG Specialist's Signature: